

TRAFFIC SIGNAL PROMISED

Local Pressure Results In About-Face by Engineers

"Arrangements have been made for the installation of a flashing light signal at the intersection of Routes 5 and 107 near Niles as quickly as materials can be purchased."

With this statement, in a letter written November 5 to The Township Register, State Highway Engineer G. T. McCoy acceded to local requests that safety measures at the intersection be undertaken. The letter was signed by Assistant State Highway Engineer J. H. Vickery.

"We are hopeful that the installation of additional traffic control devices at this intersection will serve to alleviate the accident frequency," the letter ends.

SANITARY DISTRICT CALLS $120,000 BOND ELECTION

A special election asking the issuance of $120,000 in bonds for the Irvington Sanitary District, which embraces both Irvington and Mission San Jose, has been called by the Sanitary Board for Tuesday, December 9.

The district has been notified by the State Health Department that it is no longer possible to dispose of raw garbage by dumping it in the waters of the bay and the election has therefore been called to cover the expense of erecting a sewage treatment and disposal plant.

The proposition calls for the issuing of 120 bonds of $1,000 denomination to bear interest at the rate of not to exceed five per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually.

Two election precincts have been established for the registered voters.

Precinct No. 1 will include all that portion of Irvington Sanitary District lying within the boundaries of the Alameda County general election precincts designated as Irvington 1 and Irvington 2.

Polling place will be the Leal Building, with polls to be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m., continuously. Election officials will be: Ann Rose, inspector; and Elsie Rogers and Anne Perry, judges.

CLASS COMPLETES PILOT TRAINING AT CENTER FIELD

The second class of Ex-G.I.'s to take flight and ground school instruction at Center Field, Centerville, completed the course and celebrated the receiving of their private pilot licenses at a party given by Dr. T. C. Wilson in Niles last Saturday evening.

FORM NEW CLASS

The pilots are: Eugene Stevenson, Centerville; Jack Stevenson, Centerville; William L. Maciel, Centerville; Lionel Rocha, Newark; Dr. T. C. Wilson, Niles; Robert H. Brashear, Centerville; and Mervin E. Telles, Irvington.

Don Hubbard, superintendent at the field and veteran training coordinator, stated early this week that a new class of veterans would begin training in the near future and revealed that applications for students for the new class are still being accepted.

He also stated that plans are underway for the formation of a class for men who are employed on night shifts. For this group the ground school classes will be scheduled during the day.

ADD NEW PLANES

Three new planes have been added to the fleet of trainer planes now owned by the field, a P.T.-19, P.T.-26, and an Aeronca Champion. Up to the present time the school has used its two Luscombes and one Taylorcraft.

Keyes and Marston, aircraft conversion and maintenance company, who have taken a 12-year lease on a piece of property at the field, have their new 110 by 40-foot hangar nearly completed and have a waiting list of planes and gliders to be converted.

HOLLY PLANT TO CLOSE NOVEMBER 19

The fall processing run of sugar beets at the Holly Sugar Corporation's Alvarado plant is expected to close November 19 after a record run which is expected to total 152,000 tons of beets processed since the plant opened the summer season on August 22.

E. M. Bauhard, master mechanic at the plant, reported yesterday that the tonnage of beets handled this season will show well over a 25 per cent increase in the 1946 tonnage. He accounted for the increase by the fact that additional acres of land in this area were converted to raising beets this year, plus an exceptionally good yield.

"The average yield throughout the Holly Alvarado territory has been running 17.25 tons of beets per acre this year," Bauhard stated. The plant closed down on July 26 after processing 125,000 tons of beets from the valley area in the spring crop. The two runs for the 1947 season will total 277,000 tons.

Dr. Guy Romito, formerly of Ohio, is now associated with Dr. E. M. Grimmer in his Irvington office. Dr. Romito is a graduate of St. Louis University and has removed with his wife and two small sons to their new home on Driscoll Road.

MAN FROM INDIA TO SPEAK HERE NEXT TUESDAY

"India, even with her political freedom, realizes that she still lacks in sufficient quantity the qualities that every free and independent nation should have—equality, cohesion and character," says Lloyd L. Lorbeer, Christian lay missionary educator under the American Board of Foreign Missions in Pasumalai, India. Mr. Lorbeer will speak at the Congregational Church in Niles, Tuesday, Nov. 18, at 6:30 p.m. A pot-luck dinner will be served with the Guild and Sanford Circle in charge. The public is invited.

No contemporary missionary in South India has a more comprehensive knowledge of village life and of the problems and larger issues of Indian independence, than Mr. Lorbeer. He has studied first hand questions which puzzle Americans, such as relationships between Christians, Hindus and Moslems. Hindu and Moslem discord is not based on differences that need cause civil war, Mr. Lorbeer feels. They are largely artificial and superimposed by the linking of politics to religion.

By background and experience Mr. Lorbeer is that rare person, a layman, who can do fruitful religious work as well as purely educational. He travels hundreds of miles annually among the villages on foot, by bicycle, by auto and by bus, encouraging and counseling with Indian pastors and teachers. He is particularly successful in conveying the Christian message through friendly conversations and the selling of Christian literature, which he always carries with him.

As head of the American Board's two schools in Peshumalai, Mr. Lorbeer keeps the academic standard high, but puts primary emphasis on developing Christian character and leadership. Since these schools draw the majority of their pupils from the villages they have a deep outreach into the community life.

'GANG FIGHT' SENDS TWO TO HOSPITAL

Mike P. Rodriguez, 25, 404 Seventh street, Decoto, is in the Alameda County Hospital in Oakland, where he is given a "fair" chance to recover from stab wounds sustained Saturday evening in Decoto in what police term a "gang fight."

Joe Castorena, 19, and Julian D. Mata, 22, both of Decoto, were booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon but were later released.

Castorena told officers the fight started in a cafe when an unidentified man threw a glass of beer in his face. The two went outside to "settle things" and, Castorena said, two or three men jumped on him, kicking, beating, and cutting him. He went to Fairmont Hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises of the face and thighs.

New Leaders in Register's Race for Top Cash Prizes

Every day sees new and greater interest manifested in The Township Register's $1,200 Circulation Club. New club members are starting to work and those who have been working are finding it easy and pleasant to get votes.

Each club member should try for the bonus offers weekly. Twenty dollars in subscriptions to The Register gives candidates 50,000 bonus points; $30 in subscriptions bring them 100,000 extra votes; $50 give members 300,000 bonus points, $75 are good for 500,000 bonus votes, $100 in subscriptions 750,000 bonus points, and for each $25 over $100 in subscriptions, club members receive 250,000 more bonus points if turned in within one week's time.

The candidates who have entered the competition recently may still receive the 50,000 bonus on the first five subscriptions and 200,000 additional points for 20 subscriptions turned in the first week of activity on their part.

ROTARY CLUB TO COLLECT CLOTHES

A drive to collect clothing for European relief will be conducted by the Niles Rotary Club, it was announced this week. Serving as general chairman of the drive will be E. F. Glassbrook.

This, the second clothing drive to be sponsored by the local Rotary Club, is being held in connection with the work of the American Friends Service Committee, an organization well known for its humanitarian work.

The clothing drive will start November 17 and will conclude December 12. All organizations and schools of Washington Township will be asked to cooperate.

'FRIENDSHIP TRAIN'

DRIVE NETS TWO TONS

More than 4,000 pounds of food for the "Friendship Train," destined to aid the hungry in Western Europe, was received by a committee of Niles Rotarians last week, contributed by local residents.

The foodstuff, which included flour, dried beans, dried peas, sugar and wheat, was transported to Livermore where it was loaded on the train last Saturday.

Members of the Rotary Club here who headed the campaign included Bill Helm, E. E. Enos, Tony Enos, and Joe Gomes.

NAVAL STATION IS RECOMMENDED FOR EDUCATIONAL USE

Factors making it desirable that the Livermore Naval Air Station be converted into a county or state educational plant were explained to the Niles Rotary Club yesterday by Joe Mitchell, district elementary school superintendent of Livermore.

The station, located on 890 acres of land, consists of 54 buildings, well suited for classrooms, shops, and dormitories, Mitchell explained. He has led the movement to hold the facilities for possible educational use.

The precise type of educational institution for which the station could be best used should be decided by educators and engineers, he said. This may be for a junior college, A. and M. college, or state university branch. The speaker stated that the plan is being supported by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors.

P.T.A. MEMBERSHIP RECORD IS SET

A record-high total membership of 264 was reported at the meeting of the Irvington P.T.A., held in the school auditorium last Thursday evening, by Miss Irma Bond, membership chairman. The membership last year totaled 234.

At the meeting the pupils of the seventh grade displayed decorated nut cups that they are making to give to the veterans hospitals to brighten the tables for the holiday meals.

A short talk on a proposed school improvement program was given by Miss A. Egan, teacher at Los Altos school.

Robt. Howe and Earl Mackintosh volunteered to serve the sponsoring P.T.A. organization as leaders of the Irvington Boy Scout troop for the coming year and Mrs. Russell Hanson and Mrs. Roy Canright were named as Den Mothers for the Cub Scouts.

A plan is to be outlined during the next month by which money can be raised to purchase uniforms for the boys of the school traffic patrol.

The pupils of the sixth grade and their teacher, Mrs. Carl Von Ew, were hosts at the refreshments which were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

This is the season of the year when those annoying fuse "blow-out" may occur in the home. There are several reasons for these "pesky" mishaps and there are a few precautions you can take to avoid them.

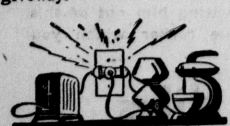

Take these simple precautions and you will avoid trouble this fall and winter:

1. Handle plugs and cords carefully. Tighten up loose screws and nuts in plugs and on appliances.
2. Repair or replace old and frayed cords on all appliances. Check your cords now.
3. Keep spare fuses on hand. It takes only a few seconds to replace a burned-out fuse.

You will be home more hours a day during the coming cold and rainy season thus giving your lamps, radios and appliances longer hours of service. Give them all some care and repair servicing now.

TAKE CARE of plugs that start spitting like a kitten. It is advance notice that a wire is about to burn through or a plug terminal is about to give away.

BEWARE of using too many appliances at one time on a branch circuit. This overloads circuits and causes blowouts.

MASQUERADE PARTY FOR YOUTH CENTER

The regular monthly meeting of the Centerville Catholic Youth Center was held last Saturday evening at the Parish Hall in the form of a masquerade dance.

The theme of the party was Autumn, and the hall was decorated with pumpkins, corn stalks and lighted with blue globes. Costume prizes were won by James Duarte and Elaine Bettencourt. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belshaw were the sponsors for the evening.

President Joseph Lewis, and Co-Chairman Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sousa have begun plans for the Christmas party with tentative arrangements calling for a Christmas tree, Santa Claus, exchange of gifts, games, and dancing.

Sunday the members of the Youth Center will attend the 8 a.m. mass at Holy Ghost Church in a body and receive their regular quarterly communion followed by a breakfast at the Centerville Elementary School cafeteria. Mrs. Caroline Brown will be in charge of the preparation of the breakfast and entertainment will be furnished by members of the Center.

CHRISTMAS SEAL LOCAL MAILING LIST IS REVISED

Community Chairmen and the general committee in Washington Township who will head the 1947 Christmas Seal drive here this year are busy this week revising the mailing lists for each community in preparation for the mailing of the new seals.

Mrs. J. R. Whipple, general chairman, stated Tuesday that the Oakland office had advised her that the seals will be mailed in time to be in the homes here by Thanksgiving.

GIVE FREE X-RAYS

The Alameda County Tuberculosis and Health Association, through the assistance of its local workers, each year mails $1 in Christmas Seals to local residents for a voluntary contribution for the amount of the stamps. If the recipient does not wish to keep the stamps he may return them to the Oakland office or the community chairman.

It was pointed out by the committee that from receipts from the sale of seals last year the Association was able to give free chest x-rays to the residents of southern Alameda county as follows: Decoto, 321; Irvington, 189; Newark, 218; Centerville, 335; and Niles, 281.

In addition to Mrs. Whipple, the general committee heading the drive this year includes: Mrs. W. H. Ford, vice-chairman; Mrs. C. L. Best, E. Dixon Bristow, Judge Allen G. Norris, Mrs. W. D. Patterson, C. H. Long, and W. W. Bolton.

CHAIRMAN LISTED

The community chairmen this year, all who have served in former years, are as follows: Alvarado, Miss Mildred Nauert, chairman, Mrs. August May and Mrs. W. S. Robie; Centerville, Mrs. Allan E. Walton, chairman, and Mrs. R. A. Sparrow; Decoto, Mrs. A. A. Amaral, chairman, Mrs. Kate Goularte and Mrs. Elsie Luna.

STANFORD - CAL ALUMNI AT PRE-BIG GAME RALLY

"Come Join the Band" and "Hail to California" next Thursday, Nov. 20, at the International Kitchen.

If you're an alumnus—either old or new—of either the University of California or of Stanford University, you're in for a lot of fun when the alumni of both universities and their wives and husbands will get together at the Kitchen for a pre-big game rally and dinner.

This is the first time that the University of California Club of Washington Township has felt the college spirit to the extent that it has invited its age-old rivals, Stanford alumni, to also participate. Because there is no Stanford Club in the township, the Californians thought the "Reds" ought to get in on the fun, too. With alumni from both universities present, the evening promises to be a lively one.

Howard Cook, of the California Alumni Association, will be one of the speakers of the evening. The Stanford Alumni Association will also supply a speaker.

Reservations for the dinner should be made with Vernon Ellsworth by November 18.

The program is being arranged by Ellsworth, president of the club, by Vice-President Donald Graham, and by Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Roland Bendel.

The dinner starts at 6:30.

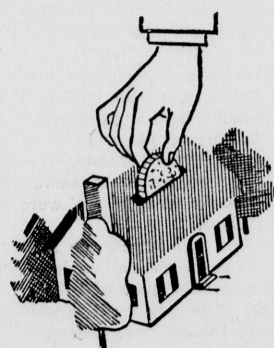

FORMAL DANCE AT SCHOOL TONIGHT

The annual formal dance given by the Girls' League of Washington Union High School will be held at the school gymnasium tonight (Friday) beginning at 8:30 p.m.

The ballroom has been beautifully decorated to represent Neptune's undersea grotto and music will be furnished by a dance band of high school students under the direction of Cliff Fields.

Joan Berney, president of the League, announced yesterday that council members heading the arrangements committees include Yvonne Caldeira, Jean Oliveira, Paula Galvan, Rosemary Trinidad, Laura Emery, Jackie Biale, Barbara Jibson, Dorothy Butler, and Winifred Rogers.

The mails by the first of December are urged to contact their community chairman for their purchases.

Thinking Things Over ...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

Add to your list of capricious plants—a white lilac in the garden of Nell Farrington Myers of Niles. It's in full bloom. And at this time of year! All right, tell us about YOUR plant. We'll be glad to hear about it, whatever it is.

ABOUT CELEBRITIES

Take a lesson from my experience and never brag about celebrities you know.

I bragged about knowing Kathryn Forbes, the author of "Mama's Bank Account." Actually, I do know her. We have maintained a desultory sort of correspondence in the last three years. I didn't say much about it, however, until her book was adapted to a play and became a Broadway hit under the name of "I Remember Mama." Subsequently the play was made into a movie which will appear soon with Irene Dunne.

As Kathryn became more and more popular, as she became the subject of comment for more and more nationally known columnists, her friendship with me ripened. That is, I mean I ripened it. A word here, a word there, and my friends soon got the idea that she and I were constant companions. One might even say inseparable.

It wasn't too hard to put the idea across. I hung on to a letter she had written me and occasionally I would let it drop out of my purse—all this taking place in front of my friends—and pick it up casually, remarking, "Oh, just another letter from Kathryn. You know—the author." I would pick it up quickly, however, as it began to take on a thread-bare appearance. Moreover the date on the post-mark wouldn't bear a minute inspection.

Then the inevitable happened.

One of my friends said to me last week, "I see where your dear friend Kathryn Forbes is autographing her new book, 'Transfer Point,' in a book store in San Francisco. Let's go over and you can introduce me."

For a minute I was stunned. This was certainly an unexpected turn of events. Then I remembered the paper. The paper can always pull me out of a tough spot. "Oh, I'm sorry," I replied, as though I were heart-broken, "I just can't make it. The paper, you know. It has to come out. I have to help get it out."

"But," said my friend, "she's to be there on Friday. You don't have to work on the paper on Friday."

I was trapped. As Friday approached I grew more and more apprehensive. What if she didn't recognize me at all? I began to suffer from periodic chills and fevers. Not enough, unfortunately, to put me to bed on Friday. My healthy look would have belied any excuses.

So Friday came, and I went. Not with one friend, but with two.

When we arrived in San Francisco, I suggested the art galleries. No, they didn't care to see the art galleries today. Then I told them I simply had to match a piece of material. They looked at me suspiciously. "Why," they demanded, "do you have to match material? You know you don't sew."

I dawdled over lunch. I managed to prolong it for at least two hours. Not much later I said, "I simply must have a cup of tea. I feel faint." So we had tea. I drank tea until I was waterlogged. "Oh," I said, trying not to make my voice sound too bright, "Look at the time! It's five minutes to five. Isn't it a shame that the book store closes at five?"

"Oh, but it doesn't," said one of my friends, "it doesn't close until six. We have plenty of time." Walking towards the book store, I thought of things I could do. I could go against the red light, and get knocked down by a car and get sent to a hospital. I could fall down into one of those yawning trap doors that so frequently stand open on sidewalks. I could smash a store window and get sent to jail.

Before I had decided on any of these alternatives, however, we arrived at the book store.

They took me by the elbows and propelled me into the store. I saw her. I pulled myself together and rushed towards her gushing, "Oh, Kathryn, how glad I am to see you."

I could see no light of recognition in her eyes. I talked on hysterically, not giving her a chance to say anything. I mentioned places, things, that would give her a clue to my identity without my being forced to lose prestige in front of my friends by having to tell her who I was.

She is a trouper. She played her part well. "Why, how nice to see you again." She extended a friendly hand.

I almost collapsed in relief. I introduced my friends. They were properly impressed.

It wasn't until she actually wrote my name in the autographed book, however, that I could be certain she remembered me.

I went home. I put hot towels on my head and cold water bottles on my feet. I was in a state of complete exhaustion and befuddlement. I vow I will never go through a day like that again.

If anybody ever catches me bragging about the celebrities I know—Say, that reminds me, there are things I could tell you about a certain prominent person. He was practically a next-door neighbor of ours at one time, and ...

DECOTO CYCLIST'S CONDITION 'GRAVE'

The condition of Arthur M. Vieira, 29, Decoto, who was seriously injured last week in Hayward in a motorcycle-auto accident, was described yesterday as "very grave" by officials of the Oak Knoll Naval Hospital.

He is reported to be suffering from fractures of the skull and right thigh bone. He is still in a coma and was transferred from Fairmont Hospital to the Naval Hospital shortly after the accident.

An accident report by highway patrolmen indicates that Vieira, riding his motorcycle, crashed into the side of a car driven by Joseph Fidego, Hayward, as the latter was making a left-hand turn.

RETURNS HOME

A house guest for the past three months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Zaddow was Mrs. Zaddow's mother, Mrs. L. S. Zaddow of Grass Valley. Still young at the age of 83, she very successfully came through an eye operation, and though now forced to wear glasses, she feels better than ever. She returned home last Sunday.

ON VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Eph Musick left last Wednesday for a few days visit with their daughter, Mrs. Laura Strain in Benicia. Mr. Musick hopes to get in a little good bass fishing while there.

TO GRAND NATIONAL

Seen at the Grand National Live Stock Exhibition in San Francisco last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. "Dutch" Re and Frank Pimentel.

CLUB MEETS

A most entertaining pinocle party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Costa last Saturday night. A wire recording machine operated by Fred Costa took precedence over the card playing, for Fred had cleverly concealed the machine and during the evening it picked up whopping fish stories, choice bits of gossip and a little community singing accompanied by Fred at the piano. Later the record was played for the amusement of all. Winners of the pinocle prizes were Edward Mara, Harold Wallace and Lester Watkins. Refreshments of home made pumpkin pie and coffee were served at midnight by the hostess. The group will meet next at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Watkins, Dec. 13.

REBEKAH NEWS

For several years the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of California have been working on a project to raise $250,000 to build a separate unit at the Veterans' Home, Yountville, to be used for occupational therapy for California veterans who have returned and are returning from the war fronts. The Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges have worked constantly on this project, and sometime this year found that they still had $35,000 to go. The Rebekahs have pledged themselves to meet this sum by Thanksgiving, and to that end have worked harder than ever. District No. 7 and District No. 53 have joined forces and have been traveling around to the different lodges carrying a "Pot o' Gold" with them to gather the offerings for this project. Monday night, Nov. 10, it was Niles turn to travel, so about thirty members of the local lodge, headed by Noble Grand Maggie Neill, traveled to Elmhurst Rebekah Lodge carrying the "Pot o' Gold" with them. At the close of the business session of the Elmhurst Lodge, a program was put on by the Niles visitors under the direction of Anna Bradford, chairman of the good fellowship committee of Niles Rebekah Lodge. Kenneth Stedman, with guitar accompaniment, sang several solos among them being "Silver Haired Daddy," "Irish Lullaby," and "The Soldier's Last Letter."

The Hollywood Hi Steppers then stepped out, and they did step out. They were in fancy costume, and their quadrille was so well received, they had to repeat it. Among those in this number were Irene Bales, Gertrude Davis, Ruth Andrews, Olive Pugmire, Lula Howard, Jennie Mohn, Iva Marble

The last number on the program was a "Looking Backward" dance participated in by Ada James, Ann Arlington, Ruth Meck, Lou Moser, Elsa Mikkelsen and Lillie May Butterfield.

The next regular meeting of the Niles Rebekah Lodge will be held Friday evening, Nov. 21. Minnie Woodward, Sylvia Lammi and Maude Silers will be in charge of the social hour. Second nomination of officers will be held, and final plans will be made for the annual Christmas dinner and party for Rebekahs and their families to be held Friday evening, December 19.

ORGANIZATION PARTY

The P.G. & E. clubhouse in Newark will be the setting for a party to be given by De Guadalupe, Y.L. I., for its members and their guests this Saturday night.

Niles Rebekah Honored at Party

Mrs. Rose Stearns of Niles Rebekah Lodge was given a surprise party by the members of the lodge last Friday evening under the direction of Maggie Neill, noble grand, and Mildred Barber, chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

Mrs. Stearns has been a Rebekah for fifty years, and is a charter member of Niles Rebekah Lodge. She also has been recording secretary of the lodge for 33 years. A fifty-year jewel was presented to her, the presentation being made by Mrs. Mary Barnard. Mrs. Barnard has been a member for thirty-four years, and as it was the mutual birthday of Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. Barnard, birthday gifts were in order for both.

Fern Mitte had the pleasure of presenting Mrs. Barnard with gifts from the lodge and different members.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the dining table particularly was outstanding, a miniature setting of the lodge hall being placed in the center of the table between Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. Barnard.

The members all came in old fashioned dresses, except Mrs. Stearns, who was in a modern new dress. Many an old trunk and cedar chest was ransacked for the dresses displayed that night. Mrs. Margaret Stetz and Mrs. Irene Kibby attracted the attention of all with their hoop skirts and pantalettes.

The committee in charge of the affair staged a "Looking Backward" dance for Mrs. Stearns. Those on the committee were Mildred Barber, Fern Mitte, Eva Fournier, Lou Moser, Maggie Neill, Ruth Meck, Pat Mohn, Jennie Mohn, Olive Pugmire, Farrell Pugmire, Ivy Cull, Irene Bales, Gertrude

Mary Rocha Becomes Bride of Edward Azeveda

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

A very beautiful and lovely all white wedding took place on Sunday, November 9, at St. Joseph's Church with Reverend John Leal performing the ceremony, and Theresa Arney playing the wedding march, as the bride, Miss Mary Dolores Rocha, on the arm of her father, Mr. Joseph Rocha Sr., was escorted to the altar banked with white chrysanthemums, where she became the bride of Edward Joseph Azeveda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Azeveda.

The bride was very lovely in a charming satin and lace formal with long train and also a long lace veil trimmed in ruffle all around and held at the crown by a pearl coronet of tiny hearts. Her bouquet was very unusual as it was a Lovers Knot of tiny white chrysanthemums intermingled with orchids. The maid of honor, Miss Dolores Garcia, cousin of the groom, and the bridesmaids, Misses Delinda and Virginia Rocha, cousins of the bride, all wore white net gowns with head-dresses of heart shaped net and carried crescent-shaped bouquets or orchid colored chrysanthemums.

The best man was Mary's brother, Joseph Rocha Jr., with Joseph Azeveda, brother of Eddie, and Seraphine Guardanapo as ushers.

Mrs. Josephine Rocha, mother of the bride, wore a grey dress with black accessories, while Mrs. Katherine Azeveda, mother of the groom, wore a dark green suit with black accessories. Both had corsages of baby orchids.

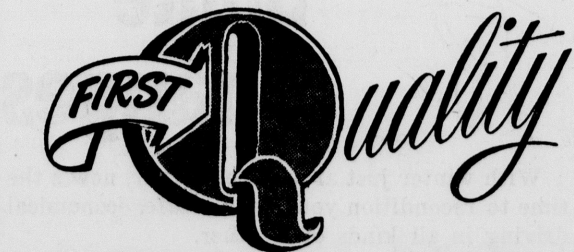

There was a reception at the I.D.E.S. Hall immediately following the ceremony at which the young folks received many lovely things to begin their happy wedded life together. They will make their home on the Niles Mission highway next to the groom's parents home where they are building at present. Honeymoon destination unknown.

INSPIRATIONAL BOOK IS REVIEWED BY DECOTO DISCUSSION GROUP

By ETHEL AVILLA

The Decoto Discussion Group started its regular monthly meeting with a delicious two-course luncheon, Wednesday, Nov. 5, at the home of Mrs. Harold Wallace. The centerpiece for the table was of mauve chrysanthemums and lantana attractively arranged in a low container.

Following the luncheon, "Out On a Limb" by Louise Baker, was discussed by the group. This book, a stimulating story of the author's life, was heartily endorsed by all the members as excellent reading material for all who have ever faced personal disaster.

She, Louise Baker, faced with spiritual courage and a great sense of humor what would seem an irreconcilable handicap to the average person. "Out On a Limb" is delightful reading.

Mrs. Lewis Musick will entertain the group at her home in Niles Wednesday, Dec. 3. The meeting, in keeping with the holiday spirit, will deal with religion and Mrs. Dorothy Roberts, our county librarian, will lead. She has chosen "This Believing World" by Lewis Browne, for discussion at that time.

Give Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown of Centerville hosted a buffet supper last Saturday night for members of their bridge club. The guests included Mmes. and Messrs. James Collins, William Dutra, John Santos, Ed Vieira, Jess Calleri, Gus Jergentz, Ed Mello and James Nunes.

Addition for Register Staff

Mrs. John Mara of Decoto is expected home momentarily with her new daughter, Cheryl Elizabeth, who was born on November 6 in the Alameda Hospital. The young lady's daddy, a veteran, is employed in the mechanical department of The Township Register.

IRVINGTON, DECOTO VICTORIOUS SUNDAY IN LEAGUE PLAY

Irvington and Decoto were victorious in their Southern Alameda County Winter Baseball League encounters Sunday, Irvington getting a 13-0 shutout over Ramos Drugs and Decoto coming from behind to down Niles 9 to 3.

The Niles Merchants, in their game against Marlo of Decoto, played on the Centerville diamond, went into the seventh inning leading 3 to 1. Three infield and three outfield errors committed by the Nilesmen during the remainder of the fray cost them the game.

Marlo got 10 hits, 9 runs, and committed 2 errors. Their battery was Garcia, pitcher, and V. Vargas, catcher.

Niles Merchants got 7 hits, 3 runs, and made 6 errors. Their battery was Clarence Stewart, pitcher, and Dave Vargas, catcher. A Lopez pitched a stellar game for the Irvingtonites on their home field, allowing but 3 hits and holding the visiting Ramos team scoreless, while his teammates banged out 9 hits to score 13 runs.

Sunday, Niles will be host to the Ashland Merchants at the Centerville field; Marlo will journey to Hayward where they will meet Hernandez Market on the Bret Harte diamond; and Irvington will entertain the Hayward All-Stars on their home field.

NILES SPORTSMEN DISCUSS COMING TURKEY SHOOT

The board of directors of the Niles Sportsmen's Club held a special meeting last Monday night at the home of Reginald Calhoun to discuss plans for the forthcoming turkey shoot to be held Nov. 16.

Those present at the meeting were Carl Kaiser, Charles Riley, Reginald Calhoun, Joe Dooley, Joe Pine, Bill Chivers and Loren Mohn.

NEW INSTRUCTOR AT CENTER FIELD

Raymond Dixon, formerly of San Jose, assumed the duties of flight instructor at Center Field, Centerville, this week, replacing James Stanhope, Niles, who resigned to accept a commission in the regular army.

Dixon, who has moved with his wife to Centerville, has been an instructor at Reed Hillview Airport in San Jose for the past two years. Other instructor at the local field is Edward Rodriguez, Niles.

PURCHASES NEW PLANE

Jack McGinnis, Niles, has purchased a twin-engine Cessna plane which he is now keeping at the Center Field, Centerville. McGinnis is a former U. S. Army pilot.

STRIPERS TAKEN

Some sizeable striped bass were taken this week from Elkhorn Slough in Monterey county.

WASHINGTON STARS MAKE GRIDIRON DEBUT SATURDAY

Climaxing more than three weeks of workouts under Coaches Lawrence Pine and John Davis, the Washington Alumni football team will take the field at Washington Memorial Stadium at 8 p.m. Saturday against the Hayward Raiders.

This game, first of its kind to be played here between two semi-pro aggregations, will feature former gridiron stars of Washington Union High School, and may be the fore-runner of organized league semi-pro ball here in future years. The team is playing under the sponsorship of the Vallejo Mills Post, V.F.W., and tickets for the opening game are now on sale throughout the township.

RAIDERS HAVE EDGE

Local football fans, who have long expressed a desire to see a team of stars of various graduating classes of the high school playing together, will have just that opportunity Saturday evening.

The Hayward Raiders have the advantage of experience on the localities, having started their schedule earlier in the season, but Coach Pine said this week that his roster of former stars are "ready" and show plenty of promise.

Ten of the 33-man Washington squad are former Santa Clara Valley Athletic League All-Star team selections and Alex Bernard, fullback, was twice named to the mythical eleven.

Two other games have been scheduled for the locals Nov. 22, Oakland Fleetlines, and Nov. 29, Camp Stoneman, both games to be played on the home field.

ROSTER OF STARS

Stars of former Washington Union High School teams who will see action here Saturday include: Wayne Calhoun, Julius Pine, Ken Calhoun, Pat Luna, Barney Bragg, Dick Belding, Ruben Lorensen, Ronnie Oliver, Tom Sinclair, Joe Schelbert, Ted Lira, Lionel Rocha, Hal Alameda, Mel Leal, Tom Ashton, Hayden Freitas, Norvell Peixotto, Paul Fracoli, Tom Kerns, Norman Dolin, Mel Gardella, Marvin Boyce, Len Smith, Lorin Mohn, Chick Luna, Weldon Pine, Moses Oliveira, Ruben Ramos, Vernon Vargas, Don Furtado, Alex Bernard, and Alden Chamness.

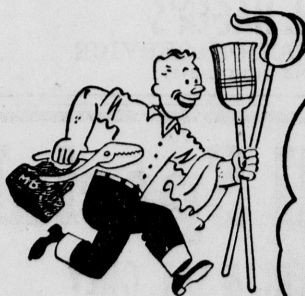

SANTA CLARA DOWNS WASHINGTON 130'S

Coach Irv Hird's Washington 130's went down to a 19 to 6 defeat last Friday night on the home field before the powerful Santa Clara undefeated team.

The Puppies trailed by a 6 to 0 score at half-time.

QUAIL PROSPECTS

Quail hunters should enjoy excellent sport when the season opens in Kern county. The birds are plentiful in this region.

You can bet it's not by accident that RPM Compounded Motor Oil keeps your motor cleaner, gives it longer life. This oil's especially compounded to end carbon trouble, prevent corrosion, stick to hot spots that ordinary oils leave bare and exposed to wear, to fight oxidation, and to eliminate air-bubbles that would impair circulation. Best of all, RPM Motor Oil rust-proofs as it lubricates!

HUSKIES, SANTA CLARA TIE; MEET CAMPBELL TODAY

The Washington Huskies out-charged and out-played but failed to out-point the Santa Clara Panthers in an S.C.V.A.L. encounter at Washington Memorial Stadium last Friday night, the battle ending in a 7-7 draw.

The defensive line play of the Huskies was far above the power shown in previous games this season with Enciso and Lizardo time and again knifing into the Panther backfield to nab the ball totor before a play could get formed. The much publicized Santa Clara powerhouse was utterly helpless to get rolling Friday night with the entire first half of the encounter being played in the visitors' territory.

AERIAL ATTACK FAILS

Countless times the Huskies drove within the shadows of the goal posts only to have penalties or a fall on the slippery field, wet with heavy dew, set them back.

Three times in the first half the Huskies were inside the Panther 20-yard stripe but lost the ball on downs when their pass attacks failed to click. At the half-time neither team had been able to score.

Early in the third quarter Ruben Rodrigues returned a Santa Clara punt 26 yards to the visitors 35 yard stripe. With Rodrigues and Halliday alternating at skirting the ends and Andy Graber powering his way for line smashes, the Huskies drove to the 12-yard line where Graber flipped a pass to Rodrigues in the end zone for the Huskies touchdown. Danny Goularte, Coaches Taylor and Voorhees' newest "find" for conversions, booted the extra point. Throughout the remainder of the third quarter the visitors were held powerless by the superb line play of the Huskie forward wall.

CAUGHT NAPPING

Late in the fourth quarter a clipping penalty coupled in the same series of downs with a holding penalty, backed the Huskies to their own 13-yard line, where Rodrigues got off a bad punt which went out of bounds on his own 35. On the first play, Gill, Panther left halfback gathered in Freitas' 20-yard pass over the heads of the Huskie defense and galloped for a touchdown. A fake kick by Azevedo caught the Huskies standing flat-footed when he passed to right

NILES FIREMEN AT ANNUAL BANQUET

The Niles firemen had their night last Saturday night.

And by "their" night, we don't mean that they went out fire-fighting. We mean that they took a respite from the rigors of battling blazes to have some real fun at their annual banquet. And would any one say they don't deserve it? For, after all, the firemen are all volunteers which means—in case you hadn't thought about it—that they protect your life and property without pay.

The evening got off to a good start by a turkey dinner served in the traditional style of the International Kitchen, which was the scene of the banquet. Following the dinner, several speeches were made by the officers of the Firemen's Club, by the commissioners, and by visitors. Dancing comprised the evening's entertainment.

The retiring officers of the club were: president, John Musgrove; secretary, William Estudillo; treasurer, Ruel Brown. The new officers are: president, Thomas Estudillo; secretary, Frank DeSalles; treasurer, Ruel Brown.

The fire commissioners are Jack Albert, E. E. Dias, Joe Gomes, Leon Solon and J. A. McDonald, all of whom were present at the dinner.

Fire Chief Clarence Crane was master of ceremonies. John Musgrove, retiring president of the club, was presented with a gift for his services in the past.

POT-LUCK SUPPER FOR NILES SCHOOL FAMILIES

A gala evening is forecast for those who attend the Niles P.T.A. pot-luck supper next Wednesday evening in the Niles school cafeteria. Those who plan to attend are asked to bring a casserole dish, a salad, or a dessert.

A special table for the younger children will be set aside, and will be under the surveillance of some of the seventh and eighth grade girls.

The supper will start at six o'clock. The first grade and kindergarten mothers will have charge of arrangements.

Mothers and fathers who plan to attend are asked to indicate their intentions by signing a return slip which will be brought home by the pupil.

COUNTRY CLUB HOLDS MEET TO REVISE CONSTITUTION

The revision committee, set up for the purpose of revising the constitution and by-laws of the Country Club, met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Roland Bendel. Any members who have any ideas for revision are urged to get in touch with any of the committee members (comprised of past presidents of the club) as the committee will hold several sessions before final revision is complete, and there is still time to have new ideas presented.
